CON: BETA MOTION BLUR ISSUE

PRO: This Game has a lot of potential, beautifully made, realistic (on one side),

The stable version where you crash land is wonderful, you have the epic struggle, hope and adrenaline pumping sensations.

The Beta side with all the cool things... I started.. wanted to play it like crazy, saw the beauty, but then motion blur hits and you lose your pizza, can't aim to protect yourself, can't walk through doors or anything that involves movement, but in those few still moments of the games drunken stupor called motion blur, I was able to move so slowly that I actually got to look around like a panned picture that a camera had taken, utterly beautiful.

Would definitely play with the motion blur off, but currently the beta side doesn't have the option to turn it off.

With that said, if your willing to be patient for this game, I have good feelings and high hopes.

now if you all will excuse me... my 1 year old has figured out how to take off his diaper and run at the same time.. I got this game for £0.08 after completing a card set for a much better game. If I were a petty man, if £0.08 were worth my time, I'd refund it.. if you like variety then you should like this game. I just finished chapter 1 of this game. When am I gonna start on chapter 2? Good question. Thing is that while this game is fun and enjoyable the game is sort of unfinished. I enjoyed the game and the characters alot but found it saddening to see that the game has been put on hold. Seeing as they didn't have the founding. However I still enjoyed the game and would love for more.

I would recommend this game only for those of you who would like a fun and quirky character selection, with a point and clicker game. The sad things is that the game is saddly still not finished but I am hoping with some support from its community the game will take of once more.

Also I bought it when it was on sale. Keep this game in mind while a sale is on and buy it and enjoy it.. pretty good game. Machineers is a fun puzzle game! I really enjoy the vibe of the game and the puzzles are challenging but not so difficult they're frustrating.. please save me from this anime \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 games i need to be productive. Bejeweled Deluxe is the game that turned the match-3 genre famous , spawning a number of sequels and clones .

It's a solid and relaxing puzzle game and a must for anyone that enjoys puzzle games .

However it should be noted that the sequels are far superior , whit better graphics and more gameplay modes .

Final score : 6 V 10 (OK)

This game is a legend. More stuff!. Equestria 0.2 Alfa test. System being used:
i9-7900X, 1080 and 32 GB RAM

This game is so slow I was falling asleep by the time they even started talking and trying to teach me during the tutorial.

Yes.... seriously. It's THAT BORING.

I don't want to rate it down, but.. really? I won't buy this again, even on sale.

It's just too damn boring! Everything takes SO LONG, even loading the first few screens. Then they want to try to explain 10 dials and levers on a console. It was just bad, lol.

It MIGHT be a good game if you like really, really technical games and zero action. But, not my type of game at all.. Better than Season 1. It's less repetitive and keeps the same humour. B. so.. it was developed for a mobile phone, that is not that bad in this case

what I liked + the story

+ graphics for that years \(raw textures\)

+ I like crows \(people use to say they live for 300 years. but the truth is they reach 75 years old and kinda mysterious creatures\)

what I disliked - the fighting style and controls \(you can see in the video-I didnt realize I have to swipe on monitor\) \(now that I found that is a mobile game thats understandable\)

- a mobile game port

- first I said why crystals. shouldnt be souls that catches the crow ? -but mobile game = crystals -that destroy the originality of the game

I wanted to "Yes" it, but the fighting is too strange for a pc game. I'll play it again and try to have some fun \(not with the crystals\) with the quotations.

Thanks.. I needed 10h for my 1st playthrough in Hard difficulty. I chose this game because I was looking for an old fashioned dungeon crawler after having recently finished a similar game \(Fall of the Dungeon Guardians\), and was not disappointed, and will leave positive review \(6.5/10\). It cannot fully compete with LoG1+2 or other Indie gems like Fall of the Dungeon Guardians...

My most important complaint... way too little monsters... I killed all monsters, and did not even get the "kill 100 monster achievement!". it was less than 80! Not only is that a no-go as an achievement hunter to require multiple parties/sessions, but it was also just too little to do! I would at least 2-3x the monster content!!! There was one particular level \(minotaurus\), which had only exactly 1 monster in it... and the one before appeared without any monsters until the very end of that level...in other games the monster count is more like 500!

The game was too short... only 8 levels \(the game mentioned before had 20, each larger than here, and same price tag!\)

Be aware that in this game, you are taking the tanking approach \(unlike LoG\)... several reviewers seemed to be annoyed by it. I actually prefer it that way... and the actual first crawlers all worked like that \(as it was turn based movement, there was no escaping or side-tracking monsters back then\)

It is often compared to the big crawlers of today, LoG1+2... rightfully so, and yes, this game cannot keep up.... they have more traps, more dungeon levels, pressure plates, throwing items/stones, teleports, outdoor area, more monsters and monster types... so there is plenty to still improve on, but all that still makes this a good game, its just not in the same league.

The music was nice, as was the atmosphere of the game. So in summary a nice first attempt, worth at a 50% discount \(which is normally and often happening during sales at Steam\), but needs to improve to be able to compete with the champions, but also some other Indie crawlers! Looking forward to a 2nd part!. Played this game before excellent game

just this time i'm unable to play it as it won't run. Suprisingly enjoyable shooter! Singleplayer about 4-5 hours, there's
